This past week I received the LCMC newsletter for the 2nd quarter of 2020.

On page 13 there is a column called “An Example of Ephesians 4:11-14”. Dave Lysaker writes, James 1:22-23 “But don't just listen to God's word. You must do what it says, otherwise you are only fooling yourselves”.

It may be time for us Lutherans to embrace Pentecost with a new passion for His presence and review some of our traditions that are not based on the truth.

Dave said it and I agree – God bless you and pray for God's will to be done here at Zion.

ZWIC MEETING

The meeting of July 19, 2020 was cancelled. The next meeting will be August 16, 2020.

Hello Everyone!

Hope this report finds everyone well! God Is Great! All the Time!

Due to the unpredictability of things in the world, I have decided to postpone the start of Sunday School for the 2020-2021 school year until January 1st. Another assessment will be done leading up to that date.

Families of Sunday school kiddos will be receiving a letter detailing the plan for the school year. They will also be receiving lessons, crafts and activities to work on as families in lieu of Sunday school.

As I am sure, this may not be ideal for everyone but I believe the health and safety of the kids and congregation is #1.

Stay Well!

Holly Wohlrabe
Sunday School Superintendent
